MILDRED'S Grill

THE VERMONT COUNTRY STORE

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT MILDRED

Mildred Wilcox was born and raised in Vermont on her family's dairy farm. She married Vrest Orton, the founder of The Vermont Country Store and became the matriarch or the Orton family. Mildred not only managed the store finances but endeared herself to hungry customers by offering homemade ham sandwiches served on homemade stone ground wheat bread baked in her own wood stove as well as country style beans, pies and cookies.

If we've inspired you to visit our store and restaurant, then you're like so many of our customers who yearn to savor the past with old fashion quality items and delicious foods.

For over 70 years, The Vermont Country Store has delighted millions of customers, just like you, with a wondrous array of treasured products and practical and hard-to-find goods. We also pride ourselves on serving good basic food.

At Mildred's Grill you'll enjoy traditional and not-so-traditional food offerings, from the best all natural local beef burgers to mac and cheese made with real Vermont aged cheddars. Enjoy a variety of grilled cheese sandwiches, salads, soups and side dishes. To top off your meal try one of our homemade desserts or ice creams.

Today Vrest and Mildred's son Lyman and grandsons, Cabot, Gardner, and Eliot continue to carry on their commitment to outstanding quality, customer service and be the purveyors of practical and hard-to-find products as well as carrying on Mildred's love of providing great, uncomplicated food and a warm smile to all of her friends and patrons.
